Naval Aggarwal to Lead Deep Water Point & Associates
Into the Next Era of Federal Market Transformation

Industry veteran appointed as company's new Chief Executive Officer

McLean, VA – July 18, 2025 – Deep Water Point & Associates (DWPA), a leading provider of strategic growth, management consulting, and federal market advisory services and portfolio company of Renovus Capital Partners ("Renovus"), today announced the appointment of industry veteran Naval Aggarwal as Chief Executive Officer.

"Naval is a seasoned leader with a deep understanding of the federal marketplace and an exceptional track record of building high-performing organizations," said Manan Shah, Partner at Renovus Capital Partners, DWPA's majority owner. "His strategic vision and operational discipline make him the ideal leader to guide DWPA through its next stage of growth and innovation."

Having recently served as a strategic advisor embedded in DWPA's sales and operations infrastructure, Aggarwal is uniquely positioned to lead the company forward with continuity and momentum.

A seasoned consulting executive with over three decades of experience, Aggarwal has led strategic growth, operational transformation, and high-impact client delivery across both federal and commercial sectors. Most recently, he served as Chief of Staff for Cherry Bekaert's Advisory practice and previously held senior leadership roles at Guidehouse, Grant Thornton, Unisys, and Arthur Andersen. His background spans advisory services, performance improvement, operational optimization, and M&A integration.

"This is a pivotal moment for Deep Water Point & Associates, and I'm honored to step into the CEO role as we embark on the next phase of growth," said Aggarwal. "Our mission and values remain the same, but we now have a clear opportunity to lead with greater speed, scale, and agility. I'm committed to expanding our impact, accelerating value for our federal clients, and strengthening DWPA's position as a trusted partner to government agencies. Together with our team, we'll continue to align deeply with agency missions, shorten time-to-impact, and build on the exceptional foundation already in place."

As CEO, Aggarwal will focus on deepening DWPA's position as the premier growth partner in the federal marketplace. He is committed to advancing the firm's strategic priorities by accelerating operational excellence, driving innovation in service delivery and expanding client impact. His leadership will be rooted in a mission-driven approach—one that aligns closely with federal agency goals and empowers clients to navigate an increasingly complex federal environment with clarity and precision.

Deep Water Point & Associates is supported by its investment partner, Renovus Capital Partners. Founded in 2010 and headquartered in the Philadelphia area, Renovus is an investment firm focused on the Knowledge & Talent industries—spanning government services, professional services, technology, education, and healthcare services. Managing over $2 billion in assets across several investment vehicles, Renovus typically partners with founder-led companies, leveraging its deep sector expertise and a disciplined value-creation playbook—spanning operational improvement, add-on acquisitions, and strategic growth initiatives—to scale and professionalize the portfolio companies with which it partners.

About Deep Water Point & Associates

Founded in 2002, DWPA is a leading management consulting and business development firm that empowers its clients to better navigate the highly-competitive federal government landscape. In delivering best-in-class services, DWPA leverages its unparalleled network of 500+ subject matter experts that bring together a unique mix of private industry expertise and government agency intelligence. DWPA is based in McLean, VA. For more information, visit: https://dwpassociates.com/.